HOREZU - ROMANIA

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Think it UP - Young Leaders in Democracy is a youth exchange involving participants from EU countries and Program Countries.

This mobility is the first step of our 2023 Youth Accreditation Project and its main goal is to give young people from various European communities skills and competencies connected with participation, democracy, European citizenship and critical thinking.

The objectives of the project are as follows:

1. Enhance competences related to democracy, citizenship and critical thinking.
3. Exploring the intercultural dimension of this youth exchange by joining the exponents of many cultures, languages and customs.
4. Developing communication skills in a foreign language as a means of personal and professional development, the working language of the project being English.
